

CONVENIENT TUTOR, LLC

Inclement Weather Policy

We are part of the inclement weather program at WLOS! If the weather is bad, check WLOS and watch the roll-around at the bottom of the screen for Convenient Tutor, OR you may log onto their website and look at the school closing and delay list. You may also sign up for a text alert to come to your cell phone. Go to www.wlos.com, click on Sign Up for Mobile Text Alerts and then scroll down and click on Convenient Tutor. If you are already signed up for mobile text alerts, click on Edit Preferences to add a check for Convenient Tutor.

We cannot make up our own announcement, but are given options to choose from when we use this system. Therefore, our plan is to keep this simple as we use this program.

If the weather warrants, you may find “Convenient Tutor – Closed.” This means there will be no classes or tutoring at Convenient Tutor on that day.

If the weather looks to clear up and you see “Convenient Tutor – Open at 9:30 AM,” then we will begin with our 9:30 AM classes. All classes that begin before 9:30 AM are canceled and all classes beginning after 9:30 AM are on schedule.

If you see an announcement “Convenient Tutor – Closing at 1 PM” because of worsening weather, this means to prepare to pick up your student if they are at Convenient Tutor before that time and do not come if your class begins after that time.

If the weather is so bad at night that we know there is no way for classes the next day, you will see the announcement after 4 PM the night before.

For our tutoring families:

If Convenient Tutor is “Closed,” there will be no tutoring.

If Convenient Tutor is Open, come for tutoring unless you call us or we call you.

ALWAYS, we want you to be safe! We defer to parents, it is your decision whether your child comes to class. If we are having class and the weather is bad in your area, please stay home. Please give us a call so we know, and we are happy to send the homework. Safety is the most important factor in any closing or delay, as well as whether or not you can make it if we are open.
